Experience

Corina, admitted to practice both in Uruguay and New York, has over twenty-five years of experience in corporate law. She specializes in mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, commercial agreements, and foreign investments, advising major multinational and national companies operating in our country. Her practice area also includes financing processes, primarily international, having advised both banks and companies on projects of great significance to Uruguay over the years.

In 2018, she was recognized by the prestigious international publication Chambers & Partners as “Uruguay Lawyer of the Year” and from 2018 to 2024 by LACCA as LACCA Approved, also being distinguished as a Thought Leader. Additionally, Corina was awarded multiple times by the reputable international publication Euromoney/Legal Media Group as “Best Corporate Lawyer in Latin America” (2016, 2017, 2019, and 2023), as well as “Women Leader” (2020, 2021, and 2022). She was also listed by Latin Lawyer among the 50 most inspiring women in law in Latin America. She is an officer of the Women Lawyers Committee of the International Bar Association, was member of the board of directors and executive committee of World Services Group and has been a speaker at various conferences in Uruguay and abroad.

Corina is actively involved in several pro-bono initiatives, including those related to childhood and education, as well as matters related to gender parity. She also leads the Diversity and Inclusion Committee at our firm and participates in various initiatives related to women's leadership in the legal profession. She is a member of the "Women in the Profession Program" at the Cyrus R. Vance Center for International Justice.
